

NOTICE FOR PATIENT

Your Privacy

We respect your right to privacy and we have systems in place to ensure we comply with the Australian Privacy Principles. This statement is a brief summary of our practice's privacy policy. Our complete policy is available on request.

Our practice Proventure Geelong Pty Ltd ABN 60 152 867 733 trading as Dental Boutique collects health information about you in order to provide you with dental services. Personal information collected such as your name, address, contact details, health insurance and financial details are also used to address accounts to you, process payments, collect unpaid invoices via an external collection agency and to contact you about our services and any issues affecting your health care.

We may collect your health information from other health care professionals, or disclose it to them if, in our judgement, it is necessary in the context of your care.

If you choose not to provide us with information relevant to your care, we may not be able to provide a service to you, or the service we are asked to provide may not be appropriate for your needs. Importantly, you could suffer some harm or other adverse outcome if you do not provide us with relevant information.

We will securely store your records, such as x-rays, treatment and personal details, and any other material relevant to your care. Our complete privacy policy sets out how you can access or seek correction of your records.

Our privacy policy details how you can lodge a privacy complaint and how we will deal with such a complaint.

For administration purposes, we may rely on service providers located outside Australia. We will take reasonable steps to ensure that any offshore data transfer complies with Australian privacy laws. Whilst our practice takes all reasonable steps to ensure security of your information, we cannot guarantee secure transmission of information over the internet.

Our practice Privacy Officer can be contacted at the practice during business hours if you have any concerns or questions about a privacy matter Practice Manager, Linda Clayton.

THE PRACTICE PRIVACY POLICY

Our practice reviews and updates this Privacy Policy on a regular basis.
Our privacy officer is Practice Manager, Linda Clayton:

Our practice respects your privacy

We take your privacy seriously.

We are bound by the Australian Privacy Principles contained in the Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988 (Privacy Act) and the Health Records Act Victoria 2001.

Our Privacy policy outlines how we use and manage your health information. A Notice to Patients is posted in our patient waiting area as a summary statement of the policy.

Collection and use of information

We collect health information directly from you and your authorised representatives to provide you with dental treatment.

Personal information such as your name, address, health insurance and financial details are used for the purpose of addressing accounts to you, as well as for processing payments, collecting unpaid invoices via an external collection agency, and writing to you about our services and any issues affecting your health care.

As this practice is undertaking accreditation, some of your details may be released to the accrediting agency. The accreditation agency is also bound by the privacy act. We may de-identify and use your information and data for research, evaluation and benchmarking purposes.

We may also collect health information from a third party such as a health fund or referrer.

We will only collect your e-mail address if you send us a message or you provide us with your address directly. It will only be used for the purpose for which you provided it. You have the option of having your email address deleted from our records at any time.

Non-disclosure of information

If you choose not to provide us with information relevant to your care, we may not be able to provide a service to you, or the service we are asked to provide may not be appropriate for your needs.

Importantly, you could suffer some harm or other adverse outcome if you do not provide information relevant to your care.

Website Security

Our Internet Service Provider Telstra makes a record of your visit to our practice website and logs the following information for our reference:

- Your server address
- Your domain or top level domain name (for example practice.com, .gov, .au, etc.)
- The date, time and duration of your visit to the site
- The pages you accessed and documents downloaded
- The previous site you visited
- The type of browser you are using
- Your ISP may collect more or less information for you

This non-identified information is used to monitor usage patterns on our site in order to improve navigation and design features – helping you to get information more easily.

Our website contains links to other websites. We are not responsible for other websites' privacy practices, and care should be taken when providing personal information on any website.

Cookies

This website only uses session cookies during a search query of the web site. Upon closing your browser the session cookie set by this website is destroyed and no personal information is maintained.

Employer/employee responsibilities

All staff employed in this practice are required to undergo training to understand their responsibilities in maintaining your privacy and to sign a confidentiality agreement in order to protect your personal information.

Disclosure

The purpose of collecting your information is to provide you with a dental service; for internal and external administrative purposes, insurance purposes and record keeping.

We will not use your health information for any other purpose unless one of the following applies:

1. You have consented;
2. You would reasonably expect that your information may be used for that purpose; for example we may disclose your health information to another health service provider such as a specialist dentist, a technician, your GP or another health practitioner for the purpose of providing you with health care; or
3. The use of your health information is required or authorised by law.

Data quality

The practice takes steps to ensure that the health information we collect is accurate, up to date and complete. These steps include maintaining and updating personal and health information when you attend the practice or you advise us that your personal information has changed.

Data security

The practice keeps hard-copy, electronic records or a hybrid of both.

We protect them by ensuring hard-copy records are kept in locked files and there are security processes in place regarding computer access. Electronic data is backed-up.

If there are no specific security measures in place use this clause:

Given the inherent insecurity of information passed over the Internet, we do not currently support the transmission of personal health information to or from our patients over the Internet. If you send any personal health information to us via the Internet, we cannot guarantee its security.

If there are specific security measures in place use this clause:

We have deployed the following security measures to support more secure communication of sensitive information across the Internet.

- insert details of the security measures that you have adopted/deployed, such as encryption, password protection, secure sockets etc.

Access and correction

You can request access to your health or personal information we hold, or request that we change that information.

Requests for access or correction must be in writing and directed to the practice Privacy Officer.

You can access or make changes to your health or personal information unless we consider that there is a sound reason under the Privacy Act, or other relevant law to withhold the information, or not make the changes.

The practice may charge for access to or copies of health records.

After a period of 7 years (and if you attended the practice as a child, you have reached the age of 25) we may destroy your records in accordance with applicable laws.

Marketing

Our practice may use your information for the purpose of direct marketing; however, we will not on-sell your personal information.

We understand that you may not wish to receive marketing materials. If you would prefer not to receive such information, please approach the Practice Manager or another staff member at the practice.

Sending information overseas

As part of maintaining your records, the practice may use off-site electronic data storage providers, transcription service providers, professional indemnity insurers, marketing agencies or other third party service entities. These providers may be located offshore.

We will try to inform you about where your information is sent. Please be assured that we take reasonable steps to ensure compliance with the Australian Privacy Principles in relation to any off-shore transfer of your information.

Complaints

If you suspect there has been or may have been a breach of your privacy, you can complain directly to the practice Privacy Officer. (See Enquiries below).

We take complaints very seriously.

You can lodge a complaint in a number of ways: by phone, email, in writing or in person.

Your complaint will be reviewed in house.

Any appropriate corrective action required to manage this breach and any preventive actions required in order to prevent breach in future will be discussed and decided.

You will be sent a letter explaining the review process and the consequences of the review.

In the event of a privacy breach, we will comply with applicable guidelines issued by the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner.

For more information about Privacy laws, or to raise concerns about any matter not satisfactorily resolved with the practice you can contact the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (www.oaic.gov.au or ph. 1300 363 992).

Privacy and general complaints about your care can also be directed to the Health Services Commissioner.
